TINY ANCIENT KORAN ON DISPLAY FOR RAMZAN

JERUSALEM

A tiny 10th century Quran is on display for the first time as part of a collection of Islamic texts being shown at Israel’s National Library to mark the Muslim holy month of Ramzan. Curator Raquel Ukeles said that the exhibition is aimed at drawing attention to Islam and minority cultures in Israel. Mr. Ukeles said the Quran is fragile, but well-preserved.